

Wilmington Band Parents and Friends

Monday, 27 August, 2007
(Addendum)

Dear Band Parents and Friends:

The beginning of the school year is so busy that we already have two updates and a correction to the first newsletter!

Update: If you are the parent of a subfreshman and can drive your child (or more) to the High School on Thursday, please ask your child to give that information to Ms. Mette on Tuesday (tomorrow).

Correction: Volunteers will be needed to load the band camp truck at 11:00 AM on Thursday, August 30th (not 10:00 AM as originally stated). If you are available to help, please contact Kate.

Update: If you are driving to band camp for any reason and need directions, please send me e-mail.

As usual, please check <http://www.WilmingtonBandParents.org> for the latest Band Parent information.
